

Expandable food plate

Padmashree G.

Class 6
GKHPS Doddabompalli
Kolar, Karnataka

Padamshree visualises a food plate, which can be compressed/folded when not required and expanded whenever required. She also suggests writing health related advisory at the back of the plate for people to read.

Young Padamshree likes singing, dancing and reading books. She also likes to help her mother in her various daily chores whenever possible. She wants to join Indian Armed Forces and serve the country.
